

Nicole Lala

COSTUME DESIGNER

NICOLELALA412@GMAIL.COM

EXPERIENCE:

COSTUME DESIGNER

The Rocky Horror Show | 2021 | Northwestern State University

- Duties included designing original costumes, pulling from stock, purchasing different pieces, fitting actors, and finalizing costumes through dress rehearsal.

COSTUME DESIGNER

2021 Summer Season | Jefferson Performing Arts Society

- Duties included pulling from stock, handling rentals, building costumes, and maintaining wardrobe through run of the shows Shrek the Musical, Jr. and The Addams Family Young@Part.

COSTUME DESIGNER

Songs for a New World | 2019 | Northwestern State University

- Duties included pulling from stock, assembling costume looks, fitting actors, and finishing looks before dress rehearsal.

ASSISTANT COSTUME DESIGNER

Cat in the Hat | 2019 | Northwestern State University

- Duties included developing a process of building a wig made of horsehair tubing, teaching others how to make them, and adjusting the wigs for onstage wear.

ASSISTANT COSTUME DESIGNER

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead | 2018 | Northwestern State University

- Duties included learning the basics of 3D printing, finding a method of printing, assembling the pieces, painting, and detailing. This project was presented as a poster at USITT 2021.

SPECIAL SKILLS:

- 3D Printing for costume purposes
- Building wigs out of horsehair tubing
- Hand and machine sewing
- Industrial serger and sewing machine
- Flat patterning
- Draping
- Crochet
- Valid driver's license (LA)
- Proficient in Microsoft Products
- Read music
- Cake decorating

EDUCATION:

NORTHWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Science, concentration in Design and Technology, expected graduation May 2022

REFERENCES:

CONTACT INFORMATION AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

Jessica Parr, Costume Design, Northwestern State University

Lynne Bordelon, Director of Youth Programs, Jefferson Performing Arts Society

Karn Richoux, Theatre Technology, Northwestern State University